

TEAM BUILDING PROGRAMS

MARCH 2022 - FEB 2023

WELCOME TO A WORLD OF SELF-DISCOVERY!

The rate of change we experience in the fast paced world that gets smaller by the day can be quite over whelming. This is true for individuals and organizations. We need a strong connection to our centre, and a deep appreciation of what we and others bring to enable us to be resilient and effective in fulfilling our mission. How do we develop this?

There are no doubt volumes published on this subject, but our answer is simple – go on an Adventure.

An Adventure gets you out of your familiar surroundings, it exposes you to some risk, and the outcome is not always known. In this space there is no time for pretences or limiting beliefs. It calls you out – to shine your truth and to make peace with your weakness, and in doing this, creates a genuine relatedness between people that’s not always accessible in the comfort of our everyday lives.

We invite you and your organization to come and Adventure with us – surprise yourself with what you can do, what you will learn, and how you will connect.

What makes us different?

The joy of an All Out Adventures experience is the personal attention all participants receive from the instructors. Our staff’s commitment to sharing these extraordinary experiences ensures that everyone comes away with a new appreciation for themselves.

speaker*

Chris is a born Adventurer and teacher. He believes in discovery, especially in building experiences that help others break through their limiting beliefs to discover their own perfection and inspired future.

Chris is co-founder and director of All Out Adventurers, Drakensberg Trails, and the Royal Drak MTB Challenge, Ridetheberg and Runtheberg Events. He is an avid learner and an inspired teacher and has developed a culture of learning and teaching in all that he does.

Chris's talks and group development sessions are packed with wisdom from 25 years of studies in behavioural sciences, architecture, philosophy, psychology and proprietary technologies learned through his studies with Landmark Education and the DeMartini Institute. All this is brought together with 54 years of living life to the fullest -touring the Northern American Eastern Sea Board on a bike for 6 months after graduation, spending 11 years helping thousands of people achieve their dreams of ski-ing big mountains, moving to South Africa to start a family, and create one of South Africa's best loved Adventure Parks and Trail Systems – All Out Adventures and Drakensberg Trails.

Today Chris's mission is to work with individuals and organizations to expand opportunities for them to find their truth and to step into their own extraordinary existence, through talks, small group workshops and one on one sessions.

These can be incorporated in team building getaways, or booked individually. Contact us for tailored options.

Survivor

A fail-safe crowd pleaser – lots of problem solving and a few personal challenges thrown in for good measure. Groups are divided into smaller teams (or Tribes) to complete a course of challenges, gathering maximum points in the allotted time. Each challenge focuses on a character trait contributing to an effective business – such as creativity, trust or communication.

The Zip Line and King Swing Challenges are optional activities for the adventurous group members. The focus is unity and fun. Nobody is obliged to do everything, but the spirit of camaraderie and light-hearted competition inspires most people to new heights (literally and figuratively!).

More activities than teams ensure participants remain engaged for the duration. Activities vary according to group size and program duration.

Duration: 3-4 hours
Max Group Size: 200 pax
Price: R630 per person

Adventure Quest

Our own version of the Amazing Race, The Quest starts at the Adventure Centre, or from your accommodation venue.

The group is divided into smaller teams who race to complete a series of team and personal challenges at the Adventure Centre and other venues in the area.

Activities may include quad bike riding, horse riding, pizza making, cocktail mixing, hiking, navigation, golf and Adventure Centre favorites like the King Swing and Flying Trapeze.

Each activity is allocated points according to the degree of difficulty.

Participants will need their own vehicles to access activities at surrounding resorts, which are in a 10km radius of All Out Adventures.

Duration: 3-4 hours
Max Group Size: 60 pax
Price: R1200 per person

Keep in Mind

We can put custom packages together to accommodate any time and budget constraints
